Welcome letter Rustam Minnikhanov

President of the Republic of Tatarstan

Dear partners,

The Republic of Tatarstan is a rapidly growing region of the Russian Federation.

Our forward-looking economic policies have helped Tatarstan to create favourable conditions for investors and businesses.

A number of well-known international brands have already selected Tatarstan as a hub for their operations, including 3M, Air Liquide, Daimler, Ford Sollers, Fujitsu, Haier, Hayat Group, Kastamonu, Marriott, Rockwool, Sisecam and Wienerberger. Our republic's social, economic and political stability, legal guarantees, and systems for supporting investment have helped us to establish a business-friendly environment.

The Republic of Tatarstan has well-developed infrastructure to provide investors with a variety of support. For instance, our two special economic zones—SEZ Alabuga for industry and manufacturing, and Innopolis for technological innovation—are already in rapid development. Other projects include KIP Master, Khimgrad Technopolis, IT Park High-Technology Park, and Idea Technopark, as well as various R&D centres and accredited municipal industrial sites.

Another of Tatarstan's competitive advantages is its geographic location at the intersection of major transport arteries connecting Europe and Asia. The Moscow–Kazan high-speed railway will be laid here and become part of the New Silk Road.

Our republic frequently hosts high-profile global and Russian events, including economic forums, summits, intergovernmental commissions and sporting events. In 2013, Tatarstan welcomed participants and guests of the Summer Universiade. In 2015, the republic hosted the World Aquatics Championship, and FIFA World Cup matches in 2018.

To promote Tatarstan internationally and attract investment, a special intergovernmental body was established. The Tatarstan Investment Development Agency (TIDA) serves as a one-stop-shop to meet investors' needs.

Our economic policies are targeted at ensuring a favourable investment and business climate. Our priorities are also spelled out in our Strategy for the Social and Economic Development of the Republic of Tatarstan to 2030 (Strategy-2030).

The Republic of Tatarstan is always pleased to welcome new business partners and will continue to foster the conditions that support investors and business.

Rustam Minnikhanov
President of the Republic of Tatarstan

Welcome letter Taliya Minullina

Head of the Tatarstan Investment Development Agency

Dear colleagues,

Among the most unique and innovative Russian regions, Tatarstan is also the best place to invest in Russia. Indeed, for three years in a row (2015, 2016, 2017), Tatarstan has had the highest-rated investment climate among all Russian regions.

Today, Tatarstan is a globally competitive region. The republic's advantages include advanced manufacturing facilities, extensive human capital resources, open and trust-based relationships, well-developed infrastructure, a wide offering of tax breaks and a business-friendly climate.

The region has created a special government body, the Tatarstan Investment Development Agency (TIDA), to serve as a one-stop-shop to meet investors' needs.

TIDA was founded to provide investors with support and assistance and to help them feel both secure and confident as our long-term partners. The agency's work has been remarkably successful.

Tatarstan has well-developed investment infrastructure and offers numerous benefits, including land with free utility connections to gas, heat, electricity and other resources. Residents of our special economic zones enjoy zero taxes on land, property and transport for up to ten years after their first profits are generated. Tatarstan is the only region in Russia with six investment sites that enjoy federal tax breaks.

Tatarstan's favourable geographic location provides easy access to an extensive consumer base throughout Russia, the Eurasian Economic Union and the CIS. Ten of Russia's 15 largest cities are within 1,000 km of Kazan.

Our main focus is on building partnerships that are both reliable and sustainable. We want to make it easy for companies to work in Tatarstan—and to be successful.

We welcome you to visit Tatarstan so that you can see with your own eyes all that we have to offer.

Taliya Minullina
Head of the Tatarstan Investment Development Agency

Welcome letter Denis Derevyankin

Managing Partner, PwC office in Kazan

Dear friends,

We are pleased to present this Guide to Investment in the Republic of Tatarstan together with the Tatarstan Investment Development Agency, a team of professionals dedicated to assisting investors in establishing companies and ventures.

To maintain a strong investment climate, Tatarstan must be able to respond to various challenges, including a rapidly changing economic environment.

The region's extensive resource base, high levels of human capital and favourable geography are no guarantee of success. Tatarstan's experience demonstrates that collaboration between government and business is critical in achieving lasting results. Indeed, Tatarstan ranks first among all Russian regions for its investment climate.

PwC has operated in the Republic of Tatarstan for more than 20 years, and our Kazan office celebrated its tenth anniversary in 2017. Over these years of fruitful work and engagement with business and the regional government, we have seen the economy expand and the region undergo a vast transformation. Simultaneously, Tatarstan's position in Russia and the world has changed. For many years now, the Republic of Tatarstan has held leading positions in prestigious rankings, thanks to its investments in new production capacities, the presence of numerous international companies and the in-migration of human capital from around the world.

As a major economic centre, the region has become an important hub for international business, cultural and sporting events, thanks to its well-developed infrastructure, local hospitality and high-quality services.

We hope that this guide will become a helpful tool for you.

Welcome! Рәхим итеgez!

Frequently asked questions by investors

Procedures for establishing joint ventures

What procedures are in place for establishing joint ventures?

First, the parties meet and identify their next steps and, if necessary, sign documents such as a memorandum of intent and a confidentiality agreement.

What does a memorandum of intent usually contain?

In a memorandum of intent, the parties usually specify the scope of their activity, confirm their mutual interest in setting up a joint venture, define the law and judicial authority that will consider disputes between the parties, etc.

What law regulates the procedures for registering legal entities in the Russian Federation?

The procedures for registering legal entities in the Russian Federation, including companies with foreign interest or participation, are defined by Federal Law No. 129-FZ of 8 August 2001, “On the State Registration of Legal Entities and Sole Proprietorships”.

Where can I find the list of documents needed to register a legal entity?

The list of documents is available on the website of the Federal Tax Service.

The list of documents is specified in Article 12 of Federal Law No. 129-FZ of 8 August 2001, “On the State Registration of Legal Entities and Sole Proprietorships”.

To which tax inspectorate must I submit registration documents?

The registered address of a legal entity is considered to be the legal address of the director (CEO, founder, etc.). The business address may be the address of an office owned by the founder, or the home address of the firm’s CEO (rented premises may also be used as the business address).

How long does it take to receive state registration documents?

If the documents you submitted are correct and complete, you will receive the following from the tax inspectorate within three business days:

- Certificate of state registration of a legal entity;
- A copy of the corporate charter/articles of incorporation signed by the registering authority;
- A list of records with the Unified State Register of Legal Entities (USRLE).

Investment protection law

What legislation is in place in Tatarstan to protect my investments?

The Republic of Tatarstan has adopted the following laws on protecting investments:

- Law No. 1872 of 25 November 1998 “On Investment Activities in the Republic of Tatarstan”,
- Law No. 2180-XII of 19 July 1994 “On Foreign Investment in the Republic of Tatarstan”.

What about federal legislation?

The Russian Federation has adopted the following laws on protecting investments:

- Law No. 39-FZ of 25 February 1999, “On Investment Activities in the Russian Federation in the Form of Capital Investments”,
- Law No. 160-FZ of 9 July 1999, “On Foreign Investment in the Russian Federation”,
- International treaties signed by the Russian Federation on stimulating and protecting investments.

How is the hiring of foreign employees regulated?

Where are the rights and obligations of foreign citizens and the terms of their migration registration defined?

In the Republic of Tatarstan, Federal Law No. 109-FZ of 18 July 2006, “On the Migration Registration of Foreign Citizens and Individuals without Citizenship in the Russian Federation” is in effect.

What legislation regulates the right of foreign citizens to work?

Federal Law No. 115-FZ of 25 July 2002, “On the Legal Status of Foreign Citizens in the Russian Federation” regulates this right.

What do the registration procedures for foreign citizens depend on?

Article 1.2 of Federal Law No. 115 defines three main types of foreigners: “temporarily staying”, “temporarily residing”, and “permanently residing”. The registration procedures primarily depend on the status of the foreigner.

Limitations on the withdrawal of funds from the Russian Federation

In accordance with Russian law, transactions involving individuals and legal entities that are currency residents (and non-residents) are subject to currency controls when transferring money abroad.

Main participants in foreign exchange transactions

Currency residents and non-residents: individuals

These individuals may legally transfer money abroad in the following major ways:

- through specialised and unspecialised payment systems;
- through banks to other individuals (acquaintances, relatives);
- through banks and payment systems to legal entities.

Currency residents and non-residents: legal entities

The main operations for transferring funds abroad:

- transfer of funds to contractors (suppliers, creditors, borrowers);
- various payments to individuals (e.g. employees abroad);
- transfer of various duties and charges to foreign government agencies.

Land rights (restrictions)

(What restrictions are in place on foreign investors in Tatarstan?)

In the Russian Federation, land use and protection are regulated by the Russian Land Code and regional legislation.

Land is provided for rent (sometimes with the right of the first option) for terms of no more than 49 years. To receive land for rent or ownership (except for exclusive rights), it may be required to win a bid/auction.
